VERSES VAST. INSIGHTS BROADCAST!

INCEPTION:

HOW WE CAME TO BE

In the midday hours of February 7th, 2023, twenty students gathered together under the roof of room 202 along with mentors and decided to bring tangible shape to an idea that had been brewing for quite some time.

Thus, was born 'Crescendo' with the motto 'where ideas meet, creativity sparks'.

Crescendo was carefully crafted to be a representative body embodying unity, purpose & connection amongst members & students for the everlasting journey ahead in spheres of learning & knowledge. To foster the spirit of youth by securing the connection between students & opportunities in diverse realms of art, culture & academia throughout the college premises and beyond stands as its one core mission.

The even better deal of it? It's the club of the students, by the students and for the students!

Crescendo offers a plethora of skill development events and hosts multiple activities all year round. From EduFairs and seminars to competitions and exhibitions, we host a diverse range of events throughout the year to cater to every interest and passion.

Whether it's to sharpen leadership skills or enhance exposure, our club offers vibrant opportunities for both academic and extracurricular growth.

In Crescendo, we proudly unite students from diverse academic disciplines, spanning arts, literature, STEM, and beyond. Here, we ensure that every member, regardless of their background, contributes equally to the rich tapestry of our club.

Serving as the facilitating body increasing college exposure in preeminent platforms for the enhanced performance of the institution as a whole, Crescendo is committed to make a positive impact on our campus community and beyond!

Here's to one of the most active and inclusive clubs on campus, dedicated to fostering growth, connections, & creating unforgettable experiences for our students. As we move forward, we're pumped to grow our family even wider, creating a community where this incredible unity can thrive forever.

Mentor's Memo

WHERE MESSAGES RESOUND AND GUIDANCE LEADS AROUND

THE ULTIMATE STEPPING STONE STAGE WHERE OUR MENTORS SPRINKLE THEIR STARDUST OF THOUGHTS, MESSAGES, ADVICES, AND GUIDANCE ON THIS EXCITING NEW ENDEAVOUR.

DR. MONOJIT RAY – PRINCIPAL

"News-letter by the students, reflects their intensive involvement and whole-hearted effort. This endeavour depicts how young minds can channelize their creativity, expression and spirit in a positive framework under the domain of Crescendo. Students' initiative and execution display a colourful palette that has accommodated most of the important activities of college along with the opinions of the youth. I wish them soaring success and in times to come, I know this newsletter would remain as a dazzling exemplar in archive as well as in experiential learning."

DR. SUTAPA GHOSH DASTIDAR – IQAC CO-ORDINATOR

"Effort of all the students is commendable in such an execution. The images, niche message and the content- everything is top-notch. It is certainly an extraordinary commencement. Continuation, consistency and betterment can be a holistic dream hereafter. It looks attractive and at the same time provides all the requisite information which makes it intriguingly legible. It would captivate the readers and certainly would play a pivotal role in student-centric infotainment."

MESSAGE FROM THE CO-ORDINATORS

DR. JOYDIP CHANDRA

"Flair of the students has been reflected wonderfully in this section of the newsletter. Crescendians have made one of my subjective dreams possible, as I envisioned long ago about such a world-class newsletter. Information, entertainment, cultural, and academic highlights, along with students' reviews, reflect a strong bonding and convergent spirit of youth that I believe will continue to blossom. Visual aesthetics is unique, and that would be poignant to the mode of infotainment. I wish them all the very best, and just like to name 'memoriphony', let their work be an exemplar of student-centric symphony."

DR. SANDIP PAL

"'Memoriphony' is like snapshots of moments and memories. Glimpse of academic excellence, cultural events, athletics, seminars, competitions - all are encapsulated in the pages of Crescendo Chronicles. I would like to congratulate Team Crescendo for publishing this wonderful newsletter and organizing an array of events throughout the year. All of your spontaneous efforts are very much appreciated. Best wishes for your future endeavors."

DR. PIJUSH NANDI

"Keeping memories intact can become a life-spanning asset. Although it is not the case with the continuity of its proceedings, the 'Memoriphony' commentary gives us that taste. I believe that this newsletter, with each different section, will become a collective commentary on one's memory, a collage of memories beyond 'news'. So, you have to go back to its pages again and again. Best wishes for the future. Inevitably, over time, souls with open hearts will remain—feelings will then become nostalgic, and we will hang those pearls around our necks."

MISS SUSRI BHATTACHARYA

"A newsletter transcends the threshold of factography when it connects the subtleties of memory. It is fascinating to go through the architectural design of this venture, along with all the important details around academia, the event calendar, and cultural activities. A special highlight is certainly the free-voice section, where the research-based students' choices are given highlights. Graphically, it appears to be fascinating, and most of the relevant information is included. I wish Crescendians would continue to explore their crimson years with the same fervour of spontaneity and honest intent."
